

There is probably a reason that a consumer cancelled services with a bank, and the consumer probably would not want to go back! So why let the banks get special treatment! NO Call means NO CALL from anyone !!! That also goes for election phone calls...those are the worst.